

A Long Standing Tradition of Excellence

- ▶ 1895- Dave Lennox builds & markets the worlds first riveted-steel furnace
- ▶ 1904- Dave Lennox sells his furnace company to David Windsor Norris & gets back to the business of inventing.
- ▶ 1935- Lennox pioneers the introduction of a forced air furnace for residential homes.
- ▶ 1950- Lennox official name is changed from Lennox Furnace Company to Lennox Industries, Inc.
- ▶ 1960- Lennox develops and manufactures the Duracurve Heat Exchanger, reducing noise problems in gas furnaces.
- ▶ 1973-Lennox increases air conditioner efficiency with the development of a 2 speed hermetic compressor.
- ▶ 1980-Lennox introduces the first air conditioner to achieve an efficiency of 15.00 SEER.
- ▶ 1988- Lennox makes products available to small local dealers
- ▶ 2000- Lennox introduces the first indoor air quality system to attack all classes of air contaminant
- ▶ 2005- Lennox Breaks new ground in design & performance innovation with an all new line-up of cooling products, including the first air conditioner with a 20+ Efficiency rating